

History Society visit to Euston Hall

Members of the History Society spent an enjoyable day at Euston Hall, home of the Duke and Duchess of Grafton. Our excellent guide Jackie's enthusiasm for the history of the family and their marvellous collection of paintings (by Van Dyke, Stubbs, Lely and our 'own' Mary Beale) made this a memorable outing in spite of damp weather. We also visited the garden, church and Water Mill.

1 - Members of History Society at Euston Hall

2 - View of Euston Hall Across Parkland

3 - Church at Euston